BEAUTY GURU: ULTIMATE GIFTS OF BEAUTY

By Geoffrey Rodriguez

This year, shopping for the serious beauty aficionados on your gift list, male or female, needn't be a challenge with the season's incredible selection of exceptionally tasteful, expertly designed and all-around pleasing gift items. From luxe-brands to innovations in design and technology, this season's most exciting must-have beauty items are available in a multitude of forms—from fragrance to skincare, color cosmetics and much more. There is definitely something that will appeal to everyone's inner beauty guru! Let this be the year for giving and receiving the ultimate gifts of beauty that will be enjoyed and appreciated throughout the coming year.

Twin Luxe Shave

Founded by identical twin brothers and former Wall Street traders, Twin Luxe is a unique brand of aesthetically pleasing, expertly crafted and highly functional shaving tools and products that any discerning man will appreciate. Utilizing the highest grade materials and employing some of the most advanced technologies and finishing techniques traditionally used in the manufacturing of fine timepieces, automobiles and surgical instruments, Twin Luxe has created some of the most impressively designed and visually appealing men's shaving paraphernalia available anywhere. The refined and purely masculine Chrome edition comes in a handsome walnut box that also includes a micro-cotton shaving towel as well as the brand's signature Rescue Shave Gel (part of Twin Luxe's complete line of top grade, highly effective shaving products). Also available are the uber-chic and masculine Anthracite and Arctic editions, which are both perfect for the man who has everything. Check out the website for some uniquely masculine and beautifully designed gift ideas.
