We have made a list that you can check twice to buy something for the men whom you think are nice and/or even nicer when naughty...because these gifts would be equally fitting for brothers, fathers, friends, and lovers.

TwinLuxe

TwinLuxe offers a line of luxury products for men that range from shaving to skincare. Anything that can reduce irritation in their lives on a daily basis would be a gift most men would love. TL's Essentials Gift Set for shaving was the featured men's grooming product in the official Grammy Awards gift bags issued to the presenters and the performers at last year's ceremony held in Los Angeles. "You will get the perfect shave experience with our products. We turn shaving and men's skincare into a fun, rewarding experience. It is like having the entire spa facial, barbershop-shave experience in your own bathroom," said

Anthony Tsai, president at TwinLuxe, in an interview with JustLuxe, posted in March 2011.
