THE DETAILER

You made it. And you've got the brand-new Ferrari 458 Italia to show for it. Naturally, you'll spend the first few months wiping it with nicer diapers than you used on your kids and having nightmares about joy-riding valets. But with time you'll be ready to hand her over to a pro, and that pro is Beach

Cities, O.C.'s most trusted detailer of exotics. After a day at the track—you'd never let that launch control go to waste—ask for the Custom Show-Room Detail and they'll have your baby shining like the day you bought it. But that's only because Ferrari used the same service. $295. 1645 Superior Ave., Costa Mesa, 949.645.9274

DETAILS, DETAILS
If it's good enough for Ferrari, it's good enough for us.

THE TAILOR

Every man needs a great tailor to keep him looking good. Sure, when you buy designer clothing the store's tailor will do a fine job, and we wouldn't trust anyone with our David August custom suits besides the clothier himself. But for other jobs our go-to guy is Benny Spatola, whose Santa Ana shop (have no fear—it's right across from South Coast Plaza!) has served O.C. for more than 30 years.

HEMMING WAY
Generations of Orange County men have trusted their tailoring to Benny Spatola.

He's a charismatic craftsman whose life work is making you look good. Spatola Tailoring, 1631 W. Sunflower Ave., 714.549.3906

"I think fast, I talk fast, and I need you guys to act fast if you want to get out of this. So pretty please, with sugar on top, clean the fing car."

GOOD COUNSEL

THE CONNOISSEUR

As an attorney who specializes in liquor licenses, Mike Cho is the O.C. culinary world's inside guy. You want to open a bar or restaurant, go to Cho. So the Irvine resident dines out well and often throughout SoCal, and knows every chef and GM in town. Some of his most tempting tastes include the terrine of foie gras with paper-thin pineapple at Marché Moderne and the Number 1 Toro, sashimi-style, at Bluefin. And what does the man who eats everything think of the state of the Orange County restaurant scene? "We need more young chefs, creative local joints and mom-and-pop dives," he says. We'll drink to that.

THE SHAVE

The shaving ritual is when guys put on their game face. What better way than with a razor that feels like both a Formula 1 paddle shifter and a Glock 17? Go for Irvine's TwinLuxe anthracite edition shave kit, complete with silver-tipped badger brush, for the ultimate experience. $1,088. twinluxe.com

THE CUT

O.C. has salons galore, and even men's club hideaways, but Fashion Island's freshly revamped, all-white Cristophe Salon (one of five in the world), is the ultimate for a clean, modern cut. Try to get trimmed by the Belgian himself, who cuts Bill Clinton's hair. You can't get more executive than that. 315 Newport Center Drive, 949.219.0920, cristophe.com

THE GADGET

Like it or not, you are what you carry, so whip out the Leica D-Lux 5 and you'll instantly be pegged as a savvy photographer who appreciates a super-fast lens and brilliant image quality. In true Leica tradition, the D-Lux 5 boasts an unfussy, classic design that's always in style. $849. At Samy's Camera, 3309-B S. Bristol St., 714.557.9400, samys.com
