LIGHT TOOL

The GemOro Lite Loupe is a must-have tool for any watch collector. Its 10x magnification is enhanced with a white light and a U.V. light, great for detecting damages on a timepiece or for just routine maintenance. The 20 mm lens is sealed and features scratch-resistant and dustproof coating. The Lite Loupe has a 3-position switch, and the lightweight frame design and contemporary stainless steel accent panels give it a sleek appearance. Each Loupe comes with a chain and batteries. Price: $49.95 www.iwmagazine.com

SHAVE IN LUXURY

TwinLuxe's shaving products, from The Purists own Anthony Tsai and his brother Hubert, are all handcrafted and intend to bring the feel of the barbershop into your own home. Materials used to create the instruments include unbleached silvertip badger fur that is washed, sorted and dressed in Germany, highly wear-resistant PVD coating and alumina ceramic. Skin care products focus on beneficial Asian botanicals. Price: $26 to $1,088. www.twinluxe.com

STEEL LINKS

Geneva-based accessories producer TF has unveiled watch movement cufflinks that are a perfect gift for any watch lover. Each link is 20mm in diameter and individually numbered. Crafted from real carbon fiber, brass wheel, a nickel-plated bridge and blue screws, these 1968 cufflinks come in stainless steel (pictured) or rose gold plated. Pictured steel model is $390. www.totallyworthit.com
